"GREAT DULLNESS"

BY REV. JOHN HALL D. D., N. Y.

The fin quency with which one hears this phrase is depressing. Cotton is going to waste Tobacco is shrinking Teas will not draw Stocks are standing still Bonds are held fast. Money is a drug. Real Estate is nowhere. The only thing that are lively are taxes. Like the weeds and the bad children, they grow apace.

The merchants wish things were lively—that buyers flocked to their offices and stores, that accounts were paid promptly, that a fair margin of profit could be had, and that those bills could be taken up, which destroy appetite and even murder sleep. And why should not all say Amen?

The brokers wish things were lively. There are few transactions—hardly enough for the percentage, cut down to the lowest—to pay office rent. The "street" is painfully quiet. "Not a mouse stirring" as in Hamlet, but would be a relief. If something does not come the very brokers will be broken. They long for more stirring times, and we sympathize with them. The doctors, feeling the pulse of the public, are affected by the general depression. They who used to have a driving business, now walk. Men cannot afford to be sick, or at least to pay the doctor. "General paralysis," "complete atrophy," "loss of vigor," and such professional phrases meet them in their morning papers, and chill their spirit for the day. Alas! the men who are "hurt," and even "broken," call for no surgeon, and no stimulants in the pharmacopœia can revive commercial confidence. Would that the doctors had their wish for a healthier tone in the body politic!

Nor to the lawyers fare better. Property is not changing hands. Litigation is a luxury which people of moderate means cannot afford in these times. Ordinary practice is slow and unremunerative. One branch only flourishes, and gentlemen learned in the law are half inclined to follow their clients—into the "Bankrupt Court."

Even the undertakers realize the general deadness. Not that people escape the debt of nature—(the bills of mortality are inexorable)—but calculations have been publicly made and canvassed, as to the cheapest place to die in. However dear the departed, grief—as these gentlemen value it—is still dearer, and "mourning," however sincere, is not as "stylish" as it used to be, and the economy made imperative on the living, is pursuing the dead. Undertakers, with more than professional sighing and sadness, wish for livelier times. We hope they will come.

The clergy, of course, sympathize with the people. Prudent people do not marry in hard times, or if they do, they do it frugally. So the ceremony hits it's usual money, indeed, of any kind. Of course, when retrenchment is the order of the day, religion is the commodity that can most easily be done without. Pews are down even in the highest churches. Ladies who are wearing last year's dresses have one less inducement to go to church, and when there is little or no "Society," what is there in it for young gentlemen, extending their connection on Sundays. The clergy feel—as their people have often felt during sermon—a great desire for more animation. It is extremely desirable.

So far we have written as many are talking, only a little less gravely perhaps, for really and truly we do not see why people should be so lugubrious. Is the country barren? It laughs as ere plenty. Are the people starving? We waste as much as would feed a nation. Is there scarcity of food? Why they had to get up foods—in the newspapers—to keep down the quantity and get up the price, of wheat, in the west; for every body knows how she floods can over the high wheat lands, and spare the people the bottoms." Our woes are in honest truth, more imaginary than real; and the people who are "feeling," ought in many cases to have felt, long ago; and persons who are now coming down, ought, all too often, never to have been up. Like the poor but proud Spaniard, we look at all cherries through an opera-glass, and they seem as big as pumpkins. We have broken our opera glass and are mortified and vexed with the real cherries We have been dreaming pleasant dreams were rudely roused and we wish we could sleep and renew them

So there is a cry for renewed activity, for brisker trade, for general renewal of business. Very well, more activity will come and, let us hope, be appreciated, and regarded with a moderation born of experience. But is it any wonder that an religious persons—and we have no reason to put us a separate class, and consider the religious the daily newspaper-writers—are called out for a revival in their line? If men are thinking too little about an Almighty Master, whose law cannot be safely broken; if conscience, a seeping or drugged, is faulty in its place, and the men lie, cheat and swindle unwarned and undeterred by it, if even human justice drags itself so heavily along, with tinkling eyes and pallid hands, that the mob of Capitols lynch impatiently tramples on its form to gain its ends; if men "profess and call themselves" Christians, but do not pay their debts; if society tolerates these who default with hundreds of thousands, and despises the poor creatures who toil on in honest obscurity; if the very "fashionable heaven must go through a needle's eye," and no one will walk in it; if "smart" men are wanted in the pulpits rather than good men, if this world is made the substance, and the next the shadow; if the devil is getting his work performed by men who said to God, at least when they were children, "Thy will be done"—if these things are so, why should not religion as people, rich and poor, Protestant and Catholic, Jew and Gentile, who have no vested interest in iniquity, cry out for that kind of revival? Why should they not, if so just, wish for revival of honesty; if true, of truth, if genuine, of simplicity? If they are lovers of trade-country—no matter what their politics, or name, or birth—why should they not desire such a revival? We say such revival; for nothing revival that does not carry these virtues in its bosom. Any movements that is despite of these is the more involuntary contraction of the limbs of a corpse in its coffin.

But we must stop here, or the article may be taken for a sermon that has lost its way, or an editorial from one of our "dailies." We only mean to say—Let up talk, all of us, less of the gold, honest peace, a true social, fraternal, of truth, of truth, of honor, of religion.

Hunter Wins Beecher's Sermons in Opening.—Did you ever eat one of the 365 of China Japonica (the Japan quince) Hunter case knows the brilliant hues those crimson beauties are like fire, and might well suggest that this was the "burning bush" that Moses saw. At any rate it is a burning bush unconsumed every spring. As the shrub grows old, it bears round, hard quinces, very fragrant to the smell, but hard enough to do battle We never heard of any one using them for culinary purposes, but, this year, our hearts were moved within us to save them to human uses. So we gathered a dozen and conferred with the cook: "Let them be stewed slowly all day, with sugar and water—a little water, but much sugar." In the very spirit of science we tried the compote, and redelivered to the cook with instructions to stew another day with sugar in more abundance. The fight went on and I cannot say that the sugar ever got the victory But nevertheless, by the following receipt, the Japan quince may be made to answer a good purpose For one hundred pounds of sugar, select one quince Put them in separate vessels and let them simmer for seven days. Let them both cool, eat the sugar and bury the quince where nothing can ever get at it If any one would like to bet on a hogshead of sugar against one Japan quince, we can furnish him with quinces, but would remind him of the sinfulness of betting

STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin

The Journal says that three weeks ago a seventeen years old girl, Carrie A Collins, left her father's house in Farmington, to come to Lewiston and work in the mill She went to No 3 Androscoggin corporation and boarded for a week. She was unable to get work, and wrote to her father for money to return home Her father (E G Collins) sent her the money in a day or two afterwards. Two weeks ago last Saturday, the girl left her boarding place, and has not been seen or heard of since. She left her clothes and her trunk, and only took with her such apparel as she wore The police were informed, a few days since, that the girl was missing, but thus far have been unable to obtain any but the vaguest trace of her. Her father has been here and finds in the post office in Lewiston the money which he sent to his daughter. The police have reason to believe that the girl left the city, and are taking measures to discover her whereabouts She was innocent and inexperienced, and probably some one has taken advantage of her inexperience to lure her away. Her parents are distressed with grief.

And now the bones found in the haunted house in Greene prove to be the seal of pig or sheep and the haunter is no less a creature than an active cat of the Thomasian persuasion.

The telescope of Prof. Wendall of Bates College has been received and will be mounted at once. This instrument is of 6½ inches aperture and from 7 to 8 feet in focal length. It is equatorially mounted and furnished with a finder. The object glass is unsurpassed by any of its size, and is said by the Clarks, who manufactured it, to be a specimen of their best workmanship. The instrument combines some of the latest improvements.

From the Lewiston Journal A man called into a store in this city Friday and asked for a sheet of paper on which to write a letter. After writing a while, the proprietor noticed him scrutinizing on a slip of paper, and shortly came this request. "Look here, friend if's some time since I wrote much, won't you show me how to make a r, I want to write Bomb." The merchant helped him out of his difficulty with suppressed mirth.

Cumberland.

The Argus says that the Cumberland Centre mystery (sudden presents was the supposition) proves to have been the work of three mischievous boys

The Press says that Hon George Walker, late of Machias, and Hon John D. Perry, late of Oxford, have become residents of Portland.

At Freeport the storm was very severe A two-story building used by J W Parker as a clothing manufactory was blown down. Fortunately but little damage was done to the contents of the building. Many other houses in town were badly shaken The damage to Mr Reed's house in Brewing, which was blown down, will be about $250. The large ice house of the Parker's Head Ice Co. at Phipsburg, was blown down

Considerable interest has been manifested in Winthrop because of the trial of two men, Joseph O'Malley and Andrew Mealey, who have been selling packages of goods for $150 which they represented to be worth much more than that sum but were not. After an extended trial, in which experts were called as witnesses, O'Malley was bound over in the sum of $300, but he afterwards settled with the complainant and went his way to sell more $150 packages

A divorce has been granted the wife of Rev C H Sewall of Jammon Plains, Mass., and she is given the custody of the children, and $700 a year alimony. This is the case where letters found revealed the fact that the reverend rascal had stopped at several hotels in this State with a young woman, and had finally procured a divorce from his wife in this State without her knowledge

The house of Jeremiah Wiggins of Brooks, was set on fire by the explosion of a lamp, and but for the timely discovery and efforts of the whole family, would have resulted in the total destruction of the buildings. The carpet, window curtains and furniture was badly injured, and the rooms very much smoked.

Much feeling and indignation is expressed by the people of Mercer to the false account published in the Lewiston Journal as to the alleged attempt to burn the remains of the murderer and suicide Tracey They say that not a whisper or such or any other indignity was breathed at the time, as the neighbors were otherwise employed in the ceremony. Tracey's body was found by the bloody sedge and by the distress of the family of the deceased, and especially that of his almost heart broken mother.

Washington.

The Republican says that Mrs. Arthur Gatcomb of East Machias died very suddenly, Tuesday, of heart disease.

Ten or twelve men were engaged last week in arranging the camp-meeting grounds recently purchased at Jacksonville by the East Machias Camp-Meeting Association. Roads have been made and other work done. Buildings are soon to be erected and other improvements made.

Stop that Cough.

No pulmonary complaint however obstinate can resist the healing influence of Dr. Morgan's Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound. Both in curing the Lung and Liver Diseases, Fits, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Female Complaints, &c., &c., than in consumption. It has certain cure for Whooping Cough and Croup. Contains no opium and is pleasant to take. Though worn in time whose hairs are gray, it has been such a success that druggists do not like to sell it, for when they do, they have no more to sell. Try it yourself and be convinced. Sold by druggists generally.

OUR TRIUMPH

Considering the several elections held on Tuesday as a general whole the most sanguine expectations of the Republican party are more than realized and another proof is given by the people in a majority of the States which were the scene of action, that their merits and rebelves their confidence and Republicans have abundant reason to rejoice over the victory which Tuesday's work gave them It is an evidence that their honest administration of state governments is appreciated by a majority of the people and that the party of "unreclaimable" promises does not meet their approval

The Boston Journal well says of the result in this State The Republican party of Massachusetts may justly feel satisfied with the result of yesterday's work The plurality is not large but it indicates the force of the conflict Had it been twice as large it could not have been more indicative The confidence of the party in that State was such as the people could not shake but it put forth election prowess the State from its ancient and political position by the number of those in which Republicans are in the majority

Longfellow in a too eulogistic poem to Governor John Hartranft had a wording to our very latest which was given him a good round slap by Dr Holland last year it gave $4 majorities in the Democratic side but this year the tide has turned and treasures the position having the sound Republican States-flavor rather compression to the grip of the ragbaby's back

We are reminded Edward and Rose de Vere two years ago by telling a pitiful tale and made a good many sympathetic tears flow Minnesota holds a very strong position as a Republican State and figures adds a good many votes to the popular side New Jersey drops in her vote by changing the political complexion of her Legislature changing it to Republican hands

New York which Tilden carried by 50 000 last year, is working into line in a manner that augurs most favorably for the Republican party Our special despatch this morning makes allusion to the important results that has made towards the right

The result in Mississippi was anticipated by the Republicans and although last night's despatches say there were no disturbances there is a good foundation for the belief that intimidation worked most favorably for the Democrats The news from Maryland has a that is exceedingly Democratic but in the language of the Portland Argus That is a sign that the Democratic victories

The enemy has been met and all efforts to hold the temporary successes of the past two years have proved unavailing The people are moving and have gained a glorious victory

The Providence Journal in speaking of the opposition of Secretary Chandler says That spirit of the Grant administration and the New York Tribune at the opposition of Mr Chandler to the Tilden administration is quite proper It is just like Grant's work in war would be frightened by the rumor against Mr Chandler by the best that have been told of him and by the general opposition to a man who is a positive man Grant knows Mr Chandler well He has been associated with him in the government since he came to the President and he knew him well during the war He saw what he was a fit man for the place that he was capable honest and fearless, that he had strong sound common sense that he had rendered eminent service to the country in the war and that his qualifications especially qualified him for the difficult and laborious position which was vacant He knew that through persistent misrepresentations Mr Chandler had been kept from public notice as a blustering republican who was content with his success mainly in his position as one who would bring nothing to the cabinet but noise and violence and a tired of his opponents The truth is that Mr Chandler is a representative man of the West and New Hampshire and the sturdiest New England stock He came as a child to Michigan and reared his fortunes with that growing region He entered upon mercantile pursuits and was long at the head of one of the leading houses of the west His credit was unquestioned all the bankers and business men was good as a bond He rapidly accumulated one of the greatest fortunes ever made west of the mountains and accumulated it by legitimate trade and banking without speculation, beyond the natural rise of investments in that part of the country During the war Mr Chandler was one of the finest of those who stood by the government, and demanded that the utmost should be done to the utter overthrow of the rebellion and the unconditional surrender of its rebels He was a leader in the Michigan Republican movements of McClellan, he advised always the most vigorous measures and had perhaps too little charity for failure

In the Tweed case the defense still continues its course of interposing dilatory motions The anxiety to avoid a trial on the merits of the case renders it probable that when the real defense is brought forward it will not amount to much Meanwhile patience sits on the monument to the memory of Tweed which the lawyers are building in foolscap, and smiles at the grief of the tax payers

Southern editors who have been reading the lugubrious accounts of the state of Northern industry put forth by the Democratic campaign speakers in Massachusetts are liable to get such notions as this published in the Augusta, Ga., Constitutionalist

"Northern workingmen are now avowing that they have become slaves instead of the negroes whom they helped emancipate and enfranchise, to the detriment of the whole land"

Many of the Kansas settlers in the valley of the Arkansas, are doing a profitable business by gathering up buffalo bones. Heads and ribs are worth $5 a ton for fertilizing purposes Skins and shoulder-blades bring $10 a ton and go to the sugar refineries. The horns are worth $30 for heads of umbrellas, fans, pipes, etc. and even bits of hide found hanging to the heads are gobbled up by the glue-makers A clean sweep has been made of the valley for 40 miles each way from the railroad.

Hon J G. Blaine and wife, and Hon Eugene Hale and wife arrived here from Halifax last evening, after a very enjoyable trip to the sister city. It will be remembered that our distinguished Americans accompanied the Premier's party by invitation They will remain in this city to-day, (Wednesday) —St. John, N. B. News.

The Toledo (Ohio) Blade says: "The Democrats have claimed that the returning in the Soldiers' Home at Dayton gave a majority for Allen. I ask to see the vote. They gave a majority of 400 for Hayes."

The New York Express of Monday had a dispatch forthcoming every bally tabooist with "Recorder Hackett says," which is both ingenious and effective. Quotations from the Recorder's remarks latter refusing to take the decision of Tammany in making appointments in his court, were peppered all over the paper. There was hardly a report or despatch, however short, in which the reader did not stumble against "Recorder Hackett says" The effect is sometimes quite ludicrous. For instance. A man was found drowned near Bay Bridge, he was forty-five years of age and his clothing consisted of, Recorder Hackett says," etc.; "Theodore Thomas' orchestra will give a concert in Boston on Thursday, when Recorder Hackett says," etc ; a fire is reported and "the following are—Recorder Hackett says"—the saying being followed by "the losses," Colonel Navros of the British army is "Recorder Hackett says, etc., etc then, "registered at the Windsor Hotel" The reports of sermons are full of Recorder Hackett's sayings coming in this style "You may deny it as much as you please, Recorder Hackett says" etc "I have not had my heart so filled with thanksgiving for a great Recorder Hackett says," etc , on the entrance of Messrs Moody and Sankey, Recorder Hackett says," etc , after an impassioned appeal to the unconverted Recorder Hackett says, etc , Mr Moody's address was little more than Recorder Hackett says," etc "He was glad to see that Recorder Hackett says" etc And so it goes on throughout the paper even in the ship news market reports, marriage notices and advertisements.

The Duke of Portland is the most eccentric of noblemen so far as society is concerned He is dead to the world Its sunrises touch him with an atmosphere of misery which no one peer or commoner, is permitted to penetrate Even his own solicitors, the managers of his enormous estates are never allowed an interview his years ago the Duke's annual income was upward of £300 000 and since that time it has very considerably increased His Grace has never been married, and has little or no faith in womankind His rubbing passion is architecture He is forever putting up new structures on his estate and constantly employs something like 1 000 workmen—masons smiths, and joiners The old Abbey of Walden where he constantly resides is approached by ruinous ancient passages only There are more than fifteen miles of tunnelling leading to it When the Duke appears in London it is under a hat of unusual height, and a long old fashioned umbrella which he also offers Wet or fine, he never sets out without an umbrella, and his trousers are invariably tied up below the knees with a piece of common twine He never answers a letter and although a member of four London clubs—Boodle's Brooks's, the Travellers and White's—he never goes near them

It is anticipated that Washington will be the scene of stirring political movements soon after the 15th of November, that being the date of Fernando Wood's occupancy of his hospitable mansion at the Capital The arrival of this crafty wire puller will be the signal for active operations by all the aspirants to the Speakership of the democratic Congress. Fernando declares his intention to make the fight a hot one's heart of Dixon rules upon a coalition with the Tilden men, basing his expectations upon the theory that New York can not urge candidates for both the Presidency and the Speakership at the same time Sam Randall is still hopeful though not so confident as he was two months ago, while Fernando Wood Walker of Virginia is mentioned as likely to figure conspicuously as the favorite of the Eastern members and as a candidate who stands in nobody's light for the Presidency —Chicago Tribune

The Herzegovinian rebellion is again assuming a grave aspect The defeat of the Turk at Zubci and the report of the Consular Commission that the Porte's cruelties were under attest the strength and vitality of the insurrection The significant attitude of Russia tells forth from the London Times a declaration that England is not prepared to engage in armed intervention It seems probable that Turkey will be obliged to grant to the disaffected provinces something more substantial than the promised reforms

The widow of Stonewall Jackson wanted the colored men of Richmond assigned an honorable place in the procession at the unveiling of the Jackson statue instead of the inferior position actually given them, but the Lynchburg Virginian says

It was surely quite enough that the friends of the dead leader who had fought under him and with him assigned any place in the procession to those who insist on them by parade and banners on every anniversary of the surrender of General Lee or of the Emancipation Proclamation

In the destruction by conflagration in the town of Sherman Texas on Monday, over six business places including the new post office and seventeen dwelling houses were destroyed The losses are estimated at $210 000

Small pox is increasing with alarming rapidity in Brooklyn Of the 90 cases reported to the health board, last week, seven have resulted fatally The preceding week forty five cases were reported With but few exceptions the disease has been confined to the 10th ward Vaccinating physicians have been sent out to make house-to-house visitations in the infected sections

From the Maritime Sentinel

AMHERST Nova Scotia, Jan 28, 1875

We would call the attention of our readers to the advertised in another columns. We do this having experience in the matter Being slightly skeptical as to the results promised, we purchased a bottle of the cure for a friend of ours, who was much troubled in the shoulders as I thought Hardly three months have elapsed, a her name is Sophie Smith, and she can not hold a remembrance of rheumatic attack although previously she suffered with it at most constantly.

We sincerely could hope her to be cured from using only one bottle but it has convinced us that it is a sovereign remedy We believe a couple of bottles more will effect a permanent cure, and would urge our readers to give it a trial also

J B WOODLAND Editor

All Who Have Used It Will Believe This.

PORTLAND Nov 14, 1873

Prof Alphonse Haller

Dear Sir—I wish to add my testimony to the efficacy of the valuable medicine called the

having been under treatment of it for a few days. I think it is truly wonderful the effect it has had in so short a time upon myself I would recommend it to all who are suffering from rheumatism I have no hesitation in saying that the medicine will do all it is recommended to do.

Thankfully yours,

MISS S H WATERMAN,

Cumberland Street.

This medicine is prepared by a careful, experienced and conscientious physician in obedience to the desire of numberless friends in the trade and among the people Every bottle is warranted to contain the full strength of medicine in its highest state of purity and development, and is superior to any medicine ever compounded for this terrible complaint

In simple cases sometimes one or two doses suffice. In the most chronic cases it is sure to give way by the use of four or five bottles It is the most efficient and simple remedy, hundreds of dollars are saved to those who can least afford it, thrown in money, as amply it is by the purchase of useless prescriptions.

The Diamond Rheumatic Cure is for sale at all druggists throughout the United States and Canada. If it happens that your druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send for it. One of the wholesale druggists in Boston, Worcester, Portland, Bangor and other places.

Republicans and one anti Tammany Aldermen at large are elected, to three Tammanyites, also 9 anti Tammany to 5 Tammany Aldermen, this giving anti Tammany the Board. Of the civil Justices elected, 5 are Republicans 5 anti Tammany and only Two Republican Tammany Surrogate, Isaac Hecker, District Attorney Phelps, Coroner Judges of the Common Pleas of the Superior and Marine Courts, four civil and County Judge Calderslieve are all elected by from 15,000 to 20,000 majority Eighteen anti Tammany or Republican Aldermen are elected in 17 Tammany ones are elected from this city

Brooklyn after Many Years goes Republican.

The extra of the Brooklyn Union says Chandler Republican, for Mayor is elected by 1 580 to 2 000 majority, and Daggett Republican, for Sheriff, by 1 200 majority The two Republican Charity Commissioners Republican Aldermen and 15 Republican Supervisors are also elected This will give a Republican majority in the Board of Aldermen for the first time in many years The city and county have generally been carried by the Republicans, among whom there is great rejoicing.

The Senate Republican—The House Claimed by the Democrats.

ALBANY Nov 3 Up to noon to-day returns indicate the election of 20 Republicans and 12 Democrats in the State Senate. The Democrats claim the election of 70 members to the Assembly to 58 Republicans

Returns from Albany county give Hogeboom, Rep, elected Republican Senator Harris, by 265 majority Republican and 3 Democratic Assemblymen Full returns from 7 additional counties this morning give 3,811 and Republican majority.

The Result Claimed to be Doubtful.

NEW YORK Nov. 3. At this hour the returns of the whole State give no decisive information as to the result, and it is considered doubtful whether Bigelow or Seward have received a sufficient majority

A Good Working Majority in the Legislature.

NEW YORK Nov 3 The latest returns at hand leave the State in doubt with the chances rather in favor of Bigelow (Dem.) The majority is unlikely to exceed 5,000 either way The Albany Evening Journal claims that the Senate to Bigelow by about 20 majority The Commercial Advertiser still has hopes for Seward by 1 000 or 2000 The Republicans certainly have a fair working majority in both Houses of the Legislature The Senate will stand about 21 Republicans and 11 Democrats and the Assembly 70 Republicans and 58 Democrats

The Albany Journal's Figures.

The Albany Evening Journal foots up the county majorities as follows: Republican, 40,961; Democrat, 36,060; Democratic majority in the State, 878

ALBANY, Nov 3. The Evening Journal says the result on the State ticket is close, and still a matter of doubt. Their table shows a small apparent Democratic majority The Senate, according to its present returns, stands 21 Republicans and 11 Democrats The Assembly stands 75 Republicans to 50 Democrats This may be varied a little by further returns, but not materially

No Material Changes in New York and Brooklyn

NEW YORK Nov 3 Full and accurate returns from all the districts of this city show Bigelow's (Democrat) majority to be 28 088. Returns from the various counties received to-day and to-night do not alter the apparent general result as stated last night and this forenoon, namely: that the State ticket is in doubt but probably Democratic by from 1000 to 3000 majority The complexion of Brooklyn remains as last reported with the exception that Col. Kavanaugh Independent Democrat is reported elected to the Senate by the full vote of his district with 36 majority over Jacobs, the latter being the regular Democratic

Buffalo Strongly Republican

BUFFALO, Nov 3, Full returns show that the State ticket in this city is carried by the Republicans by an average majority of 2,800 Mayor Becker, Rep, has a majority of 3,325, with ten Republican Aldermen to three Democrats.

The Election News—The Republican Gains and their Importance—Tilden out of the Presidential Race.

[SPECIAL TO THE WHIG AND COURIER.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 3 The State ticket is very close and the official count will probably be required to decide the contest. The Republicans are made immense gains, wiping out Tilden's fifty thousand majority of last year The rings in New York and Brooklyn are smashed. The Legislature is two-thirds Republican, which is of great importance as regards the redistricting of the State for ten years. Tilden is shelved as a Presidential candidate and the Empire State is moving into line for the Centennial Campaign. B.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Hartranft's Majority About 30,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3. Forty-seven counties of Pennsylvania foot up 30,751 majority for Hartranft. The townships 40 hear from are mostly small and will not change the result materially.

The Majority Holds Good

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3. Returns from a few more counties do not alter the complexion of the State.

Further Returns

11.30 P. M. Returns received up to this hour from this State indicate that Hartranft is elected Governor by majority about 17,000

WISCONSIN.

Republican Victory Complete.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 3. The returns make it certain that the Republicans have elected Ludington and the whole State ticket by majorities ranging from 2000 to 3000, and carried the Legislature by 20 majority on joint ballot.

The Latest—Ludington's Majority Placed at 4000.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 3. Returns received at midnight show Ludington, Republican, is elected Governor by about 4,000. The balance of the Republican ticket is probably elected though there is some doubt about Baetz for Treasurer.

KANSAS.

A Special to the N. Y. World Concedes 10,000 Republican Majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. A Topeka special to the World says Kansas has gone Republican by 10,000 majority, and the Republicans elect a large majority of the Representatives. The Constitutional Amendments providing for biennial sessions of the Legislature are carried.

Good Enough—A County in which Republicans are appreciated.

ATCHISON Nov. 3. The election in this county yesterday resulted in a complete Republican victory Every candidate upon the Republican county ticket is elected by majorities ranging from 136 to 600. This is the first time in many years that the Republicans have elected their entire county ticket.

NEW JERSEY.

The Senate Republican.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. In New Jersey the Republicans elect 5 out of 8 Senators. Thirteen Senators held over from last year, being 7 Republicans and 6 Democrats. The 5 Republicans so elected give that party a majority of 1 in the Senate.

The New Jersey Assembly stands 37 Republicans to 23 Democrats

ILLINOIS

The Cook County Election

CHICAGO, Nov. 3 Returns from all but one precinct in this city and a few country towns which will not materially alter the result of the election for County Treasurer, give Huck 30,161, Keelen 8 875, Hessing 25,883. Henry, the Republican candidate for Clerk of the Superior Court, has used Finerty, the opposition by nearly 4000 majority for County Commissioner. The vote is very close in the country towns. The Republicans have with but one exception elected candidates for County Commissioner.

MICHIGAN.

The Detroit Election.

DETROIT, Nov. 3. The majority for Lewis, Democrat, for Mayor, is 1,678. The remainder of the Republican city ticket is elected. The Council will stand nearly a tie on the Sunday liquor traffic.

MARYLAND.

The Democracy's Second Crumb of Comfort

BALTIMORE, Nov 3. Returns from the counties to-night are still incomplete, but sufficiently full to decide the result on the State ticket and the complexion of the Leg slature. Of the 23 counties in the State Carroll is carried 10 by majorities of 3,700, and Harris 10 by majorities of 2,000. The remaining three counties to be heard from cannot affect the general result. Of the 14 Senators to be elected the Democrats have 9 and the Republicans 3 with two districts to hear from. Of the 84 members of the House the Democrats elected 56 and the Republicans 22, the remaining five being from counties not heard from.

VIRGINIA

Frauds Discovered—Johnson's Election in Doubt.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov 3 Jas McDougal, Registrar, and John Markhausen, Judge at the first precinct of Jefferson ward, were arrested to-day on a charge of fraud in returning the vote, of their precinct, whereby it is claimed Knight, the Independent candidate for Senator, was beaten by Gen Bradley F. Johnson, Conservative. James S. Morrison was also arrested on a criminal charge for misleading voters. They were bailed in $5,000 each until to-morrow. If fraud at this precinct is established and the vote thrown out, Johnson will lose his election. The returns show the complexion of the Legislature will not be materially changed.

MISSISSIPPI.

The Democrats Claim a Clean Sweep.

JACKSON, Nov. 3. The Democrats have swept the State electing the entire ticket in nearly every county. They have about 30 majority in the House and 5 or 8 in the Senate. The Democrats elect the entire Congressional delegation with a possible exception of the 6th district. No disturbance is reported.

Letters received from Eureka, Cal., by his friends and relatives here, bring the sad intelligence of the sudden death of Jonathan Freese, Esq., formerly a resident of this town, while at work at his logging claim, a few miles from Eureka, the 14th of last October. It appears that his men were rolling a log upon the trucks, when by some means the dog on the chain became loosened, tearing out a piece of wood which was thrown with great force against Mr. Freese, striking him in the pit of the stomach, knocking him senseless and injuring him to the extent that he died in ten minutes. Mr. Freese was born in Orono, where he lived for about 40 years, and whence he removed to Eureka in 1863 He has resided there since. He has held many offices of trust at the hands of his fellow citizens, and at the time of his death was a member of the Common Council of the city. As a mark of the respect in which he was held by the people there, the local paper states that "on the day of the funeral the Council hall was draped in mourning, the flags on the buildings in the city and of the vessels in the harbor were displayed at half mast; all the places of business were closed and the City Government attended the funeral in a body." He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss there, and in Orono and vicinity several relations and a host of personal friends who deeply sympathize with the family in their sudden bereavement. From Calais.

An interesting temperance meeting was held in Calais Tuesday evening. Mayor Duren presiding. After a few opening remarks by G. E. Brackett, Esq., of Belfast, Mrs Kent Mason spoke at some length with her usual vivacity, and appealed to the parents to lend their aid to bring the young into the paths of virtue and temperance, but she wished them to be mindful, however, of those who have been intemperate for a long time. A large number signed the pledge at the close of the meeting. The Calais Band kindly volunteered their services. K.

Our correspondent Q. writes from Calais Wednesday morning as follows: The autumn session of the Maine Board of Agriculture commenced its session here with a business meeting last evening, and will continue Wednesday and Thursday, three public meetings daily. Higbie, from the Maine State Society, Harris, from the Poultry Society, Dunham, of Bangor, President Allen, of Orono, and Brackett, of Belfast, members at large. A Brilliant Wedding.

Last evening, the residence of Capt. Nathan Hopkins, No. 73 Cumberland street was the scene of a large and brilliant assemblage, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Charlotte Stetson, only daughter of Capt. Hopkins to Mr. George Rowe Sanderson of San Francisco, Cal. Mr. Sanderson has many friends in this city where his maternal relations reside, and they, with the friends of the bride, filled the house. At half past seven the bridal party entered the parlors, which had been finely and profusely decorated with festoons, wreaths and baskets of flowers, in the following order: Messrs Fred H. Appleton and Chas. H. Hutkins, Ushers. Misses Annie Niebuhr, of this city, and Annie F. Coombs of Vinal Haven, bridesmaids, accompanied respectively by the groomsmen, Messrs. Arthur R. Hopkins, brother of the bride, and Wm. H. G. Rowe, of Auburn, Mrs. Hopkins, the bride's mother, supported by Mr. Sanderson, and lastly the bride leaning upon the arm of her father and followed by Mr. John S Jenness, one of the ushers. The bridal party forming on either side of the back parlor, the bride and groom took their positions in the centre of the room, facing the Rev. Cyrus Stone D. D., who performed the ceremony that "made these twain one flesh." This done, the reception commenced at eight o'clock, and continued for an hour and a half, during which time a large number of friends extended their congratulations to the happy pair.

The bride was elegantly attired in a dress of white silk trimmed with crepe lisse, white silk fringe and orange blossoms, veil of white tulle with wreath of orange blossoms, with neck and ear ornaments of the same beautiful flower. The bridesmaids were faultlessly dressed in white tarleton with satin bodices and trimmings

A happy episode occurred just after the conclusion of the marriage service, when the telegraph messenger brought a despatch from the father and mother of the groom, Geo. H. Sanderson and wife, of San Francisco, and read as follows: "Your father and mother, from the land of the sunset, waft their blessings to you."

The reception over, refreshments were announced and the bridal party proceeded to the dining room, where Fraser had laid the table in his best style, and after grace, by Rev. Dr. Stone a bountiful repast was served to all present.

As usual upon such occasions one of the chief points of attraction was the reception room, where spread upon upon the piano, and covering two tables and the mantel, was a rich and costly array of beautiful and valuable presents from friends of the happy pair, in this State, Massachusetts and California. Many of the presents can only be properly described by the adjective "superb," and comprised articles in pearl, gold, silver, bronze, glass, etc., besides oil paintings, chromos, books, etc., and including a piano in the portable shape of a $500 gold check, to be transformed into permanent shape after their arrival upon the Pacific Coast

Everything passed off in the best manner possible, and for this much depended upon the gentlemanly ushers who so well attended to the parts assigned them. The newly married couple will set out for their home in "the land of the setting sun," with the best wishes of a host of friends. They will leave here on Friday morning, and will journey leisurely home via Niagara and other points of interest. Bon Voyage!

A HOME, WITH A HEREAFTER.

BY GAIL HAMILTON.

How will the morning stars sing together on that millennial day when the landlords of the earth shall pull down their curtains if seed be sowing they are usually gray as to the lace, and dingy as to the damask, and sure to gather dust and deliquescence, be they never so royal as the outset; shall pull up their carpets if parsnes be shallow, seeing the carpets are trodden by such ungenial feet as fate may send, and that the deeper the pile, the more surely it hoards its uncanny deposits for sensitive lungs, and delicate nerves, and vivid imaginations, shall give up even its fragrant flowery, its breadth of gilded frame and plate-glass, if danger of bankruptcy require it, but shall hold the one indispensable luxury of a hotel to be a library! With lavish generosity, from apparently boundless treasures, the proprietors of hotels have furnished their guests with numberless comforts and conveniences. They have made a marvelous outlay to fascinate the eye and to gratify the palate; but it seems never to have entered into the heart of man that this American people knows how to read. An occasional Bible in a bedroom, a perpetually gilded book of advertisements on the center-table of the gilded and gorgeous drawing-room, a faint, vague rumor of newspapers in the outer darkness where female foot never penetrates,—this is all that indicates any consciousness in the hotel proprietor that the travelers of the world ever care to while away a waiting hour by the innocent diversion of reading. What doth hinder a devotion of a few hundred dollars to works of popular science, popular theology, art and literature and history? In what quarter of the heavens shall rise that landlord of the future—he is even now dispersing with his prominent or faintive locus in the sunshine?—who shall send one looking-glass, one hot, heavy horrid arm chair one dusty, tasseled curtain to the auction-room, and bear into his inn from the proceeds a set of Dickens and of Thackeray, and Scott, and Cooper, and George Eliot, and John Halifax Gentleman, and an occasional volume of Tyndall, and Huxley, and Agassiz, and Browning and Tennyson, and Matthew Arnold (not Cranbus)? The chair and the curtain and the looking-glass would do it. I cast but dimes that the room from which it was known that a chair, a table, and a looking-glass had been removed to make room for a house of sensible little library would be the most popular room in the most popular hotel in the city.—[Scribner for November.

Enfeebling Pursuits.

Nature intended that we should use our legs freely and revenges herself upon those who confine all or part of their daily avocations in doors by depriving them of that robust health which usually falls to the share of those who labor on foot in the open air and very frequently infests upon them diseases and premature infirmities which they might have avoided by a more mature life—Persons who become enfeebled in consequence of sedentary habits or occupation, cannot do better than to resort to a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a means of recovering lost strength. Nor sit and they possess a recourse to this supreme tonic and preventive of physical decay longer than is absolutely necessary, as weakness is too often the precursor of disease. The Bitters are also invaluable as a remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, intermittent fever, urinary and rheumatic complaints, and nervous debility.

BOUTELLE & BURR, - - - Proprietors.

G. A. BOUTELLE, Boston.

In announcing the Forty-second Volume of this standard Newspaper, the Proprietors beg leave to state, that during the past year they have incurred large expense in thoroughly refitting their establishment, and are determined to spare no effort in maintaining its high character as

EASTERN MAINE.

We have now one of the best appointed newspaper offices in the State; have made important additions to our editorial, Reportorial and Correspondence corps, and are in every way prepared to furnish our patrons with a

FIRST CLASS DAILY NEWSPAPER.

With facilities at our command we hope to make this favorite newspaper more interesting and acceptable during the coming year than ever before. Our connection with the Associated Press, by which we receive the whole of their despatches by night and day, enables us to present in each issue

The Latest Telegraphic News from All Parts of the World.

In addition we shall be served by Special Correspondents at important points, and shall furnish

of the proceedings of Congress, the State Legislature, meetings of Agricultural Societies and other public bodies, carefully corrected Financial and Market Reports, a reliable Shipping List, original and selected Stories and Poetry, a large amount of instructive and entertaining Miscellany, and a very full department of

News of This Section and the State.

In politics the paper will continue to advocate and uphold the principles of the Republican party, while claiming to be independent, in the highest and best sense of the word. While fearless and outspoken in its treatment of all public questions and firmly maintaining what it believes to be right, it will avoid intolerance and make its appeals to the understanding rather than to prejudice. The Whig shall be open will be truthful of political events of important bearing upon the future of the country, and it will be our aim to keep our readers thoroughly informed, and to favor such measures and policy as will best promote the welfare of all the people. The great interests of

of Maine will receive special attention and all the influence of the paper will be exerted in stimulating the growth and prosperity of our beloved State. We rigidly exclude from our columns everything of an immoral tendency, avoid sensational matter and seek to make a thoroughly reliable paper which will find

A Welcome in Every Family Circle.

To advertisers our columns open one of the best fields in New England, our circulation being among the best classes of the people, and as this paper affords the principal medium of communication with a large and constantly increasing number of readers throughout Central and Eastern Maine. On the first of January the paper will appear in

but with all its best features retained and with such improvements as we trust will insure an increase of that support which it has hitherto enjoyed

TERMS, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE:

$8 per annum; $4 for 6 mos.; $2 for 3 mos.

The new postal law compelling prepayment of postage, imposes a heavy burden on the Publishers, but we have decided to make no advance upon our established subscription price, and will send the paper

POSTAGE FREE.

Clubbing with Magazines.

Subscribers will be furnished with either our Daily, Weekly, paper and any of the favorite Periodicals or Magazines at their lowest Club rates.

In ordering clubs advantageous terms we hope to be supplied, by a liberal patronage.

LETTER CARRIERS

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery will also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the address is left at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Holidays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M. and from 7½ to 8½ P. M. Sundays from 9½ to 10½ A. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office

ENVELOPES

No additional charge will be made for printing the business card of the sender across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Office Corrector window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if not claimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face of the letter, will be complied with.

☞ The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the cause in letters and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

Persons using envelopes of above furnished at 6¼ per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars.

Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.
